YOUR LEGACY IS OUR Legacy

WHAT IS SHARIA COMPLIANT ESTATE PLANNING?

We recognise the importance of Sharia-compliant estate planning for our Muslim clients. For over 15 years, our dedicated team has specialised in ensuring your estate plan meets the Quran's rules of succession, while adhering to South African legal requirements for smooth administration.

THE LEGACY FIDUCIARY SERVICES DIFFERENCE

While many situations in Sharia-compliant estate planning are common, we excel in addressing the more complex cases.

For over a decade, we've worked with business owners seeking solutions for succession that respect Islamic laws while balancing family interests.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SHARIA ESTATE PLANNING

Since 2010, Legacy Fiduciary Services has earned a national reputation for expertise in Sharia-compliant estate planning, offering solutions that balance religious principles with legal frameworks. Drawing on more than 15 years of practical experience, we have developed the necessary skills and structures to provide comprehensive Sharia-compliant estate planning services to our Muslim clients, addressing their unique needs.

A HARD BUT WORTHWHILE LEARNING CURVE

Over the last decade and a half, Legacy Fiduciary Services has gained significant insights by addressing each client's unique circumstances. Challenges include ensuring a surviving spouse's needs, providing for adopted children, and adhering to Sharia law, where all heirs share in each estate asset. These complexities are heightened in family business cases, where equitable asset distribution and effective communication are critical.

ESTATE PLANNING

Your "Estate" includes all your worldwide assets. Estate Planning arranges the disposal of your estate upon your death. Through more than 15 years of consistent service, we've ensured that:

1. Your heirs benefit from your wealth.
 2. Costs such as taxes are minimised.
 3. Asset transfer is simplified.
 4. Complications for your survivors are eliminated.
